BIGU

This is a story about romantic girl of the new generation

Modern romance exists both on special days and in everyday life.

BIGU clothing is based on original designs, focuses on details and is complemented by accessories.

In manufacturing BIGU products, we mainly use natural materials. And always the first layer of clothing is cotton.

Our story began in 2017 in Kiev. We started to create our collections, carefully considering all the details.

For make sure that our design is interesting for consumers, we took part in several international competitions and festivals of fashion and design.

Collections that we presented became the winners or prize-winners of all of them.

We also take part in fashion shows and children's fashion weeks.

We take part in national fashion and textile trade show.

Also we regularly participate in design markets in Ukraine.

Now we have our own production and showroom in Kiev.

And BIGU products are presented in the largest Ukrainian online stores.
